

GOOD NEWS – April 2018

The stone is rolled away.
The tomb is empty.
There is nothing to see among the dead,
leave the vestiges, the grave clothes behind.
Death's stench gives way
to budding, blooming new creation.
Come to the garden.
Come and see.

*Now the green blade rises from the buried grain,
wheat that in dark earth many days has lain;
love lives again, that with the dead has been;
love is come again like wheat arising green. #379 ELW, verse 1*

With the resurrection of our Lord celebrated April 1st, all of April unfolds this story re-creation before us – in the natural world around us, in church, in our lives of faith. The brown grass gives way to green. The bare trees bud. Flowers emerge from the cracked earth. Bird song builds. Bees begin to buzz. Yesterday, gathering with Episcopal and Lutheran pastors and priests at the Episcopal Church Camp Washington in Morris, we walked around the camp paying attention to the signs of death and decay that would feed and bring forth new life, looking at the ways death brings life and life brings death and the interconnectedness of creation. The resurrection promise is for all creation and we root ourselves in that reality recognizing the signs, watching and seeing the renewal of the world around us.

*In the grave they laid him, love by hatred slain, thinking that he would never wake again,
laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen;*

*Forth he came at Easter like the risen grain,
he that for three days in the grave had lain;
raised from the dead, my living Lord is seen;
love is come again like wheat arising green. #379 ELW, verses 2-3*

Church rings with Alleluias. Flowers, butterflies punctuate our space. Stories and glad songs of how and where and when we see and hear and speak signs of the resurrected Christ in our midst. The Easter season, the crowning season of the church year, (a week of weeks – 50 days), is about seeing Christ risen, Christ present among us in the breaking of the bread, Christ Spirit poured out for us. Like Thomas, we find healing in the wounds of Christ born for us. Like the disciples gathered hiding in a quiet room, Christ enters in, calms our racing hearts and minds, shares a meal. Like sheep searched out and cared for by the good shepherd, we find ourselves again through the call and care of the good shepherd. We see ourselves not as rejected, or screw ups, but as beloved and important. Like the recovering wintry branches attached to the strong and supple vine, what is dead in our lives is pruned back, and as we continue to be attached to the source of life, we grow anew.

*When our lives are wintry, grieving, or in pain,
your touch can call us back to life again,
fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been;
love is come again like wheat arising green. #379 ELW, verses 4*

Come and learn to see the ever-always life offered.
Come look for signs of new life emerging from death.
Come to the garden, and breathe in new life.

Alleluia! Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Peace+

Triduum: The Great Three Days
A liturgy in three acts

What was begun Maundy Thursday, with the telling of the Last Supper, the command to love as Jesus has loved, to serve as Jesus has served, and the betrayal, continues through Good Friday as we hear the passion narrative of John and place ourselves at the foot of the cross together with the needs of the world, and continues through the Easter Vigil. Together we proclaim and participate in the central mystery of our faith, the death and resurrection of Christ.

Good Friday, March 30, 7:00 p.m. (Tenebrae)

Jesus draws us to himself and to the heart of God, as promised, as he is lifted up on the cross. With boldness we approach this throne of grace with humility in prayer. This dramatic service tells of the end of Jesus time here among us in the flesh in words and music, light and darkness, prayer and adoration.

Easter Vigil, March 31, 6:30 p.m.
(Gloria Dei Lutheran Church, 355 Camp St., Bristol)

We do not host this service here at St. Andrew, but our neighbors at Gloria Dei do. Feel free to join our Lutheran family here for this dramatic service where we light the new fire, give thanks for light, tell central stories to our faith, remember our baptism, and proclaim a new creation in Christ.

50 Days of Easter begin now

Ecumenical Easter Sunrise Service Sunday, April 1, 6:30 a.m. (Federal Hill Gazebo)

The Bristol Area Association of Ministry, representing all of the Christian communities of Bristol, invites you to the annual Bristol Easter sunrise service at the Federal Hill Green gazebo, located between Maple Street and Queen Street. All are invited to attend this beautiful and simple service of worship, greeting the sunrise and giving thanks for Christ's resurrection. Parking is available on the street or at the First Congregational Church, 31 Maple Street. In case of inclement weather, the sunrise service will be held at the First Congregational Church.

The Resurrection of our Lord Easter Sunday, April 1, 9:30 a.m.

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia! With signs of the resurrection everywhere, join us in our Easter joy as our shouts and songs of Alleluia ring, banners wave, trumpet sounds and our sanctuary rings with the good news! Young people process in with Alleluia banners long buried, and during the service cover our bare cross with spring buds. Come hear (smell, see, taste, feel) the good news. Service is followed by an Easter Egg hunt for the kids, and festive coffee for all.

Worship with us weekly in Easter Saturdays at 4 p.m./Sundays at 9:30 a.m.

The Easter season is about seeing: Christ risen, Christ present among us in the breaking of the bread, Christ spirit poured out on the church. At Easter we proclaim in Christ life is stronger than death. Love wins. We hear post resurrection appearance from John and Luke with clues for us about how we see this good news for ourselves.

CONCLUSION TO LOVING OUR NEIGHBOR April 4, 6 p.m. (St. Andrew)

We conclude our series learning about our Muslim neighbor with our Lutheran siblings from Gloria Dei Lutheran, and our most excellent leader, the Rev. Dr. David Grafton with one final celebration here at St. Andrew.

As we have entered the season of Easter and joyful celebration, our meal will be a potluck offering. Bring something that brings you joy. If that's soup, (Great!), you are not alone. If that's tacos, wonderful... or baked chicken, or mandarin almond salad... you understand. There is a sign up in the Social Hall.

The Rev. Dr. David D. Grafton, a pastor of the ELCA who has worked with the ELCA in Christian-Muslim Relations both in the US and abroad, leads us in our long awaited, too often snowed out session, on Women and Islam, Sharia Law and other common questions. We will conclude our time together and our snowy series with the full Holden Evening Prayer.

Children are welcome. There is separate but connected space available for children. We will leave the doors open and have activities available (coloring, play doh, books). Supervision is not provided.

Education

WoW : Love is >. This Easter season we look at stories where God's love transforms us, changes us for the better. There are so many examples of this in the Bible, we had a hard time choosing. Of course there will be new songs to learn, silly games, dramatic presentations, crafts and blessings a plenty to be had.

Luther Sunday Adult Forum. Back by popular demand, Pr. Stephanie is offering another Luther course some Sunday mornings following worship in the chapel.

We will be reading through Luther’s The Babylonian Captivity of the Church (1520) written soon after the 95 Theses, and beginning to expand Luther’s thought on much needed reforms in the church. Despite the daunting title, this book addresses often asked questions about what makes a sacrament a sacrament, and how Luther’s understanding departs from the church of his time, in ways that hold true today. From the introduction, “In the Babylonian Captivity of the Church, Luther sets forth a reconsideration of the sacramental Christian life that centers on the Word. His these is that the papacy had distorted the sacraments with its own traditions and regulations, transforming them into a system of control and coercion...”

Sunday, April 15	Session 1: Introduction, Lord’s Supper
Sunday, April 29	Session 2: Mass as a sacrifice or good work
Sunday, May 6	Session 3: Baptism
Sunday, May 27	Session 4: Confession, Confirmation, Marriage & More
Sunday, June 3	Session 5: Divorce, Ordination, Extreme Unction
	Grab a cup of coffee and join us as you can!

#forsuchathis. Presiding Bishops of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and the Episcopal Church issued a joint invitation to a season of prayer, fasting and advocacy out of concern for proposed deep cuts to programs that are vital to hungry people struggling with poverty. There are many ways to be intentional about a fast: nothing but liquids for the day, nothing between sun up and sun down, pick a particular group of foods or a meal to forgo. The point is the intentionality. That comes from the prayer that surrounds the act for those who are hungry and suffering in poverty. This is how we walk alongside. This is how we accompany. We offer ourselves in some way for our neighbor who is hurting.

Those who choose to engage in this spiritual discipline are invited to fast on the 21st of the month. If you would like to receive devotions for the day, let Pr. Stephanie know.

Women's Guild

Since the March meeting was canceled due to one of our many snow storms, this may sound familiar!

The first meeting for 2018 is rescheduled for
TUESDAY, APRIL 10TH @1:30PM....weather permitting.

Cindy Guendert will present her program Quilts of Valor. She will bring several of her completed quilts and tell us more about the program. There will be a special ceremony to present two of our own St. Andrew veterans – Ted Neumann and Wesley Hoyt - with these quilts. Guests

(male and female) are welcome to attend. Maybe you would like a chance to honor Ted and Wesley as they receive this tribute. Maybe you would like more information about quilting. Maybe you just want a change of scenery on a Spring afternoon. Plan to join us on Tuesday, April 10th @ 1:30. Bring a friend! Light refreshments will be served following the program.

Members are asked to remain for a brief meeting. Bring your ideas. Your input is important! Topics to think about and discuss will include committees for the year and ideas re: location for the September meeting, fund raiser possibilities(during November tag sale), clothing for the first day of school program, and our Christmas giving to a local nursing home. We are still looking for someone to fill the secretary position. Joan Lagasse will be accepting your yearly dues. (Still a bargain at $10.00!) ## Coming in May.....

Watch for "Simply Giving Sign-up" weekend coming in May. Simply Giving is our online, electronic giving vehicle that allows you to set up weekly or monthly offering withdrawals from a bank account or credit card. Very easy to set up, this program allows you to know that your support of the church continues when you're away. No need to find the checkbook, or stop at the ATM for cash.....everything is automatic!

Feel free to bring your laptop or tablet, and we'll confidentially walk you through sign-up. We will not have access to your private info. If you'd rather fill out a form and have the church sign you up, Bob Herold is the designated person to set you up. Paper forms will be available for you to fill out, place in a sealed envelope which will be given to Bob. Sign up, whether computer or paper, takes about 5 minutes.

Children's Envelopes: Stewardship is trying something new for children's offerings. Our beloved green "church banks" have dwindled in numbers, often not returning to church once given out. We now have children's envelopes that include a place for the kids to write their time offering for the week (i.e participated at Wow, soup supper, read to a friend, etc), their talent offering for the week (i.e helped a friend, sang in the youth choir, said prayers) as well as their treasure given. The envelopes are numbered, and there will be an informal log of their offerings if parents wish to have statements. The spiritual discipline of stewardship is a gift from God, for all ages. If you'd like offering envelopes for your child, please inquire with the church office, Bob Herold, or Arlene Creswell.
